

Errata Submission Form

Errata is a list of errors in a published document that were introduced during the typesetting process. Errata IS NOT addenda, amendments, or technical revisions to a published document. If you believe you have identified a typo or other typesetting error in a published AWS standard, please submit this form to AWS. The submitted item will be reviewed by AWS. If the item is identified as errata, it will be published in the Welding Journal, on the AWS website, and within publication reprints.
